DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, and 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Siu et al U.S. Patent Number 6,744,769.

Re Claims 1, 4, 7-9, fig. 5 teaches a path provision tool (selecting a node identification algorithm) that receives a request for O-D path construction and selects an OD ring pair (selecting an initial network processing node...a first node); generating all valid ring sequences (applying the algorithm...to calculate subsequent node); upon obtaining the current path, determining whether the path is better the current best path (making the calculated node the selected node); step 30 repeat the previous steps (c-d) until all ring sequences are examined whereby updated current best path is determined (creating the new ring); step 31 determines whether all OD ring pair are examined (repeating b-e) (See col.6, lines 56 +).

Re Claims 3, 6, refer to fig. 13, that teaches the cost (distance); router in inherently associated with a physical location, a router (node type), and path configuration (network cabling type).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Siu et al U.S. Patent Number 6,744,769.

Re Claims 2, 5, refer to Claim 1, wherein fig. 5 teaches displaying the optimal path 32 as shown in fig. 12. In this case, it is displayed in X and Y dimension. Examiner takes official notice that the results can be displayed in 3 dimensions. One skilled in the art would have motivated to display in result in 3 dimensions to display to the network operator.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
